Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1864.

The Sandwich.

A file of Honolulu papers is as refreshing as a breath of "the sweet South breathing o'er a bank of violets." All of one newspaper is published there, whether any more, the absolute reticence of that one, fails to inform us. A resume of the contents for March and a few days of April, gives us some important matters to notice. The leading event of late, has been the death of the King and the accession of his son, both named Kamehameha, numbered respectively fourth and fifth. In those "Islands of the blest," there are no rebellions, no revolutions, few elections. There was the most remarkable absence of all sensation and political emotion on the change of monarchs. The people, native and foreign, expressed their regrets in various ways testifying in every becoming manner their sense of the event. Trade goes on through the agency of men of all nations, whose fortune has thrown them upon these shores, the advertisements showing pretty much the same indications of business, transacted as the oldest places in the world.

The whaling fleet has been active, and unusually successful, the agriculture is rapidly improving, sugar and cotton commanding most attention from capitalists. The want of constant and reliable labor, on the plantations will probably be supplied from China to some extent, as all seem to be impressed with its absolute necessity. The free Kahaks, it seems, cannot be persuaded for love or money to any such nonsense as hard work. The Coolie and African may yet supplant him in his own beautiful islands.

The bark Cambridge threatens to adventure to Oregon again, to leave sometime in April. So luck out for oranges, potatoes, sugar, bananas, sea-shells and coral. Does any of our Portland merchant princes advertise at Shanghae or Hong Kong? One firm does at Honolulu. Some time after Captain Couch and sundry old salts still extant about here shall have subsided, that firm will be honored as the pioneers in the Island trade, which is not exactly just now, but, like many other good things some day or other in the immediate future, is to be immensely valuable and rich, saying nothing about the salmon and fur trade about which "two read some, in ancient history."

In politics the people are all on one side. Loyalty, the reigning sentiment, has no degrees. The adopted citizen, American, English, German and French vies with the native in attachment to the Government, and the only consideration asked for such enlightened support is that a respectable share of the offices shall be filled by them. Democracy even, in all its shades and colors, can become a main pillar that supports the Ocean Monarchy!

We must confess that for climate and soil, for gorgeous and brilliant foliage, for variety and beauty of scenery, for an intelligent administration of Government, for good order, cultivated society, good schools and churches, and all which they have in a high degree, these Islands and people constitute the most important and interesting community of the South Pacific.

INDIAN OUTRAGES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.—We learn from our Victoria exchanges that in addition to the recent massacre of fourteen white men belonging to Mr. Waddingtons road party at Bute Inlet, B. C., by Indians, a number of other men had fallen victems to the ferocity of the blood thirsty savage. A letter from Soda Creek to the British Colonist, states that information had been received at Alexandria of the murder of Manning and several others on the Bentinck Arm trail. The murderers, it appears, then proceeded toward the settlement on the Arm, and McDonald and his party, numbering nine men, they ruthlessly butchered them all. Fears were entertained for the safety of the settlers. Upon receipt of the news at Victoria, an indignation meeting was immediately held, and a resolution unanimously adopted to arm and equip a body of not less than 100 men, to be placed at the disposal of Governor Seymour. This force co-operating with another mounted body sent from Alexandria, would, it was thought, be able to capture the culprits who were all well known.

On Saturday evening, May 28th, the Gridley sack of flour was sold at the Metropolitan Theater, San Francisco. Sales reached $28,000. The first purchaser was the agent for Grover & Baker, who got it for $625. It was re-sold forty-eight times, and the bids ranged from $5 to $500. It was sold several times for $100 and $150. Sprite, a Mexican, bought it for $30. There was enthusiastic cheering for Grant and Lincoln, and groans for Jeff. Davis. Gridley made some remarks, repudiating the insinuations against his loyalty. He was greeted with cheers.

Dixon, of the Iowa State Register, gives this answer to a correspondent who asks the definition of the new copperhead word miscegenation: "The modern meaning of the word is this—A cross between a Butternut and an Ethiopian, whereby the blood of the former is improved and the latter vitiated."

BOISE ITEMS.—From the Boise News, of May 18th, we condense the following:

It is reported that the Payette, Weiser, and other streams between Boise and the Blue Mountains are excessively high—the sloughs in many places compelling travelers to go miles out of their to get around. At the Payette ferry, the stages cannot cross; passengers and baggage are crossed over in small boats.

A dirt roof fell, by the breaking of a beam that supported it, at Happy Camp, South Boise, on the 13th ult., killing Jacob Uble, George Tyer, and another man known by the name of Muse. They were at dinner at the time of the accident, and had but a few minutes before been, questioning the safety of their position, considering the fact that the rain had added much to the weight of the dirt on the roof, and the beam was not sufficiently stout. The only person who escaped with his life, was a man on the outside front the door, and he was caught in the wreck, and was unable to extricate himself so as to render any assistance to those on the inside, one of whom at least he thinks he could have saved, had he been free.

A SURPRISE PARTY.—The correspondent of the Sacramento Union, writing from Washington May 5th, says:

Ex-Colonel Steinberger, of Washington Territory, is here trying to be reinstated in the service, from which he was dismissed a short time since. He procured the indorsement of Lieutenant-General Grant, General Wright, of California, and General Alvord, of Oregon, and armed with vouchers for his loyalty from divers persons, he commenced operations at the War Department. Unknown to each other, several Senators and Representatives received invitations to an interview with Secretary Stanton, the other day, and a mutual surprise was the result when Senators Nesmith and Harding, of Oregon; Conness, of California; Cole, of Washington Territory, and McBride, of Oregon, met in the Secretary's private room. The subject of Steinberger's loyalty was laid before them, and the two Oregon Senators said that the gallant Colonel was as loyal as anybody else; that newspapers had said to the contrary, but the same people had aspersed their character for loyalty also; likewise said Delegate Cole; Conness said that Steinberger was not loyal enough to serve his country faithfully, and McBride said ditto thereunto. Steinberger will not be reinstated.

BALTIMORE CONVENTION AFFAIRS — THE VICE PRESIDENCY AND CHANGE OF CABINET. We take the following from a special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune dated June 1st:

The indications are that Daniel S. Dickinson will be a candidate for the Vice Presidency at the Baltimore Convention.

The World's special dispatch says: President Lincoln has intimated that in case of re-election he will make a change of Cabinet. The following is put forth as the probable new Cabinet: Secretary of State—Charles Francis Adams; Secretary of the Treasury—Isaac Sherman, of Missouri; Secretary of War—Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania; Secretary of the Navy—Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland; Secretary of the Interior—Horace Greeley, of New York; Attorney General—William L. Dayton, of New Jersey; Postmaster General—Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana.

The World further says that the presence of Greeley, Pomeroy and Gratz Brown here is very significant.

MORE TREASON IN CONGRESS.—In defending Long, on the floor of Congress, Benjamin G. Harris, of Maryland said:

The South asks you to let them live in peace, but you said you would bring them into subjection. That is not done yet, and God Almighty grant that it never may be! I hope you will never subjugate the South.

The motion to expel Harris was made by Mr. Washburne. It prevailed, 81 ayes to 58 nays; but, not being a two-thirds vote, the motion was lost. A resolution subsequently offered by Mr. Schenck, to censure Harris, was adopted, yeas 92, nays 18.

HEAVY GUNS FOR OREGON.—The Marysville Herald says that six guns of heavy calibre have recently arrived at San Francisco from the East, on the ship Neusatan. Two of them—fifteen inch guns—will be mounted on Alcatraz, while the remaining four go to the fortifications now being built at the mouth of the Columbia river.

The net proceeds of the Sacramento Sanitary Fair, held May 18th, was $9,664 65. The Executive Committee expect to swell the receipts to $20,000 before the money is remitted. Good for Sacramento.

The Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, lately deceased, held an uninterrupted seat in Congress for 23 years.

Forney, in a late letter to the Press, says: "We must conquer slavery, or slavery will conquer us."

CLARKE County, W. T.—The election returns from this county show majorities for the regular Union ticket, and it is hoped a good portion of it is elected.

OREGON FRUIT VS. CALIFORNIA FRUIT.—The Portland correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin has picked a quarrel with Appleton's Cyclopedia. Here is what he says, every words of which we can vouch for as being true:

The other evening I dropped in to one of our book stalls, where I often spend a leisure moment in looking at a volume that I haven't got, and am too poor to buy. My attention was attracted by a copy of Appleton's American Cyclopedia for the Year 1862. I believe it had just found its way here. Opening it at random, in the manner of the Sortes Virgilianæ, my eye fell upon the title "Agriculture," and being something of a farmer, I read along until I came to the following: "In the size and lusciousness of its fruits, California bears away the palm, though it will find a formidable rival in Eastern Oregon, which is destined to be the fruit garden of the Pacific." The italics are mine. California, and particularly San Francisco, has enough to boast of, without wishing to appropriate or divide our special laurel. Will you then have the magnanimity to let me say in a California newspaper that the above extract, besides being sadly astray in its geography, is altogether too partial to California to be true? Oregon is not "to be" the "rival" of California in fruit growing. Bating the old pear trees planted by the Spanish missionaries in California, the regular cultivation of fruit on the Pacific coast was first commenced in Oregon, and we have kept and will keep, the lead in it. Of all the fruits and berries, common to the temperate zone—peaches and grapes alone excepted—in "size and lusciousness," Oregon bears away the palm." Peaches are apt to be injured by the cool, moist weather that often occurs in May and June, particularly the latter, but if they pass these months safely, in "size and lusciousness" they are the peer of any peach that grows. Still they are an uncertain crop in Oregon, although in the valley of the Rogue river, at the southern extremity of the State, they do much better. That section, in dryness, altitude, approximates to California, and is more congenial to the peach. So much for the "size and lusciousness," and the rivalry that is to be.

Now for the geography of this Cyclopedia. It is not eastern but western Oregon that raises fruit—is given to agriculture and bucolic habits and pursuits generally. Eastern Oregon is on the further side of the Cascade mountains, where it seldom rains. Western Oregon is on the sea side of that range, where some ill-natured tourists say it never does anything else but rain. The outside world seems to be determined to know nothing of Oregon or Oregonians, except what they see through California spectacles; so, unpleasant as it may be to our modest natures, we must blow our own trumpet, or lose our proper rank in Appleton's American Cyclopedia.

WOMEN IN REBELDOM.—B. F. Taylor is the army correspondent of the Chicago Journal, and thus describes the appearance of the women down in secessia:

Picture a human female in a dress hanging, with the look and grace of a dish cloth on a stick, and resembling in tint the inky mop of the benighted portions of the globe, an unmarried female with the modesty of a cow, a piece of tobacco in her mouth, and two batches of children at her heels, and you have the counterfeit presentment of several I have seen. They infest quartermasters, commissaries, and commandants of posts; their hungry looks attest the nature of their errand, and their incessant "I've gum for sich as you've got," always meets a response in the shape of "hard-tack" and bacon from our large-hearted Uncle Samuel's locomotive pantries.

The men are with the rebel armies, and the women are starving. All through this valley, the miserable inhabitants have no prospect for food the coming winter but the bounty of the Government. These people are free to talk and to "allow" that the "Yanks" are not the terrible Huns they fancied them, if anything as light-footed as fancy can be predicated upon anything so lifeless as these poor creatures. They all indulge, when they can, in the practice of which so many disgusting pictures have been made—called "dipping." Take a little stem of Althea, chew it into a bit of a broom at one end, dip it in the snuff, sweep your mouth out with it, and leave the handle sticking out of one corner, like a broom in a mop pail, and remember all the while that it is a woman's mouth, and you have as much of the fashion as I propose to describe.

THE PLOW FOLLOWING THE SWORD.—B. F. Taylor, the most eloquent writer of battles, and who has been long been with the great western army, lately wrote as follows from Chattanooga:

How swiftly the ploughshare follows the sword no man can quite appreciate who has not seen from a single stand-point the sweep of the one and the sober going of the other. Think of it! Where, last November, I saw Hooker move up to the battle in the clouds, his stout and steady legions swinging around upon the mountain disc, like an iron index on a mighty dial, and the guns with throbs of fire burning through the night, now the colter cuts the willing earth for a potato field! Where, last November, the crest of Lookout all day long gave rebel growls, now stands the the cabin of a photographer, and hundreds of groups has he taken at easy range, standing upon the brink. A short time ago his assistant stepped back a pace too far, and fell over the precipice. At the foot of the rocky wall our boys once scaled "like them that gather sapphire—dreadful trade!"—they found a crushed and mangled mass. Thus closely and at hazard does trade tread upon the heels of war.

BROWNLOWISM.—The Nevada Gazette say:

The idea that anything can disgust a Copperhead is rather ridiculous. The slimy viper feed on the most nauseating stuff they can find. They slander virtuous women, and laugh and grow fat upon it. They traduce men as far above them as the moon is above the earth, and rejoice and make merry over it. They stab their bleeding country in the back, set fire to the houses of Union men, shoot down our soldiers, blackguard our women, plot the overthrow of the Government abuse our public servants without stint, rob innocent people of their property, and sympathize with rebels, and laugh like fiends at the public calamities. And yet these fellows talk of the "refined tastes and the tender sensibilities of Democrats."

FIRE-WORSHIPERS AND FIRE-EATERS.—Five influential Parsee firms in London have contributed five hundred pounds sterling "for the support of the negroes emancipated under the proclamation of the President of the United States." The case is remarkable, in an historical point of view: fire-worshipers assist in elevating the victims of fire-eaters. It is also a little startling, albeit it may be wholesome, to remark that India finds a field for its foreign missions in these Christian and enlightened States. The bread we cast upon the waters comes back to us well Salted!—The Independent.

CANYON CITY NEWS.—Mason & Co. took out in one day, with two men at work, 55 ounces. This was from the bed rock on a creek claim. Sharp & Co., have four men at work on the bed rock who have taken out from 10 to 30 ounces per day for the last six weeks. A party is making preparations to open a claim at the mouth of Canyon Creek, with the best prospects of which thing. New diggings, lately discovered on one of the tributaries of the North Fork of John Day, between Canyon City and Granite Creek, have taken off every loose man. Labor is in great demand in the mines and commands $5 per day.

MEADE'S ADDRESS TO THE ARMY.—The following address by Gen. Meade was made to the Army of the Potomac on entering the new campaign:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
May 4, A. D., 1864.

Soldiers:—Again you are called upon to advance on the enemies of your country. The time and the occasion is deemed opportune by your Commanding General to address you a few words of confidence and caution. You have been reorganized and strengthened, and fully equipped in every respect. You form a part of the several armies of your country, the whole under the direction of an able and distinguished General, who enjoys the confidence of the Government, people and army. Your movements being in co-operation with others, it is of the utmost importance that no effort be left unspared to make it successful.

Soldiers! The eyes of the whole country are looking with anxious hope to the blow you are about to strike in the most sacred cause that ever called men to arms. Remember your homes, your wives and children, and bear in mind that the sooner your enemies are overcome the sooner you will return to enjoy the benefits and blessings of peace. Bear with patience the hardships and sacrifices you will be called upon to endure; have confidence in your officers and each other, and keep ranks on the march and on the battle-field; and let each man earnestly implore God's blessing, and endeavor, by his thought and action, to render himself worthy of the favor he seeks. With a clear conscience and strong arms, actuated by a high sense of duty, fighting to preserve the Government and the institutions handed down to us by our fore fathers, and, if true to ourselves, victory, under God's blessing, must and will attend our efforts.

GEO. G. MEADE,
Maj. Gen. Commanding.
S. WILLIAMS, A. A. G.

WAR EXPERIENCE.—John M. Botts in a letter to the United States Sanitary Commission, says:

From the portico of my house, I and my family have seen nine battles fought on my own fields, and just before my own door, between hostile troops, who but yesterday, as it were, boasted of a common descent, a common nationality, and a common destiny. I have been an eye-witness to many horrible atrocities committed upon the wounded, the dying and the dead by ferocious combatants, whose passions were excited to the highest intensity and who were in no frame of mind to listen to reason or remonstrance. I have had taken up and brought to my house to be nursed and cared for, as many as four-and-twenty badly wounded and neglected soldiers of the two armies at one time.

WHAT WE ARE FIGHTING FOR.—We are fighting for Louisiana, for which we paid $15,000,000; for Florida, for which Spain charged us $5,000,000; for Texas, which cost us over $40,000,000; for Mexico, which cost us $15,000,000; besides $10,000,000 for the extinguishment of Indian titles; for Arizona, for which we cashed up $10,000,000. Some say we did not pay this money, that the South paid half of it. Let us see. From the year 1781 to 1850, the amount paid into the Federal Treasury from the Free States was, less expense for collecting, $932,222,611; from the Slave States, 237,076,854, giving the North an excess of over 695,000,000. Figures don't lie. What else are we fighting for? For the dignity and unity of the nation; for the supremacy of the Federal over the heinous doctrine of State rights; for republican principles.

Winchell says the people of Alabama are so hard run for eggs, that they have to set their hens on potatoes. There's a copperhead in Oregon who sets all his on an equal number of toes. Shameful, is n't it?

SHIP ARCHITECTURE.—It is very often the case that bright ideas, obtained from the dusty and rusty corners of seclusion, are made to do an amount of service for the benefit of the world at large. So it may be considered in reference to ship building, the nicest and most difficult operation of which seems to consist in first forming a draught or model of the vessel proposed. The cultivated nations of antiquity appear to have possessed ships of a buoyant character, and ship architecture must have been observed by mankind, beginning with rude skiffs and canoes. Very little has been said on the subject, however, and the construction and character of vessels has been ever governed more by the object to be attained, than from any consideration of history upon the subject. Of clipper ships the great object has always been speed, ease of movements, and capacity for carrying guns, stores, provisions, and accommodation of the crew. The model that the American clippers are at present constructed from, was conceived on the Willamette river, by a sight and inspection of the Chinook canoe, which enables the Indian to live the remainder of his days without labor, after he has successfully built one fit for the service of his tribe. Small models of this craft are sold by Indians on the streets of our city frequently, for mere nothing, which, if their history could be known, would make them very interesting relics.

"FIAT JUSTITIA."—Under the head of costly gifts from California, the San Francisco Bulletin says: "King Victor Emmanuel, who, as is well known, is a great friend of the chase, has just received twenty stags from California. [illegible] coast, voyage and all, little less than [illegible] Most of our readers will remember reference in these columns to the progress of Count Castiglione [illegible] collecting these valuable animals from the mountains of Oregon, and very many who visited the city of Portland, [illegible] time, will remember the large [illegible] near the landing, made for their [illegible] on the California steamship. We [illegible] California papers will do our State [illegible] justice in a while, when referring to the [illegible] coast, or elsewhere, of products of [illegible] Pacific Coast. The Elk referred to [illegible] Oregon.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Of the many solemn occasions we have witnessed, none were more impressive than one which occurred in this city [illegible] two hearses moved through the [illegible] at the same moment, with the bodies [illegible] murdered men, Mr. Sullivan [illegible] The former was taken [illegible] House to the Catholic Church [illegible] wards to the East Portland Cemetery. Mr. Denison's remains [illegible] the Pioneer Hotel, to the residence of [illegible]-in-law, on Seventh street, [illegible] and C streets, where the funeral will be formed to-day. Both of the gentlemen have left families to [illegible] Their murderers will be examined [illegible] at the Cascades, the scene of the tragic occurrence.

TREASURE EXPRESS.—We are in receipt of Walla Walla and Idaho City (Boise), and Lewiston papers, by last night's boat. Mr. West, the Messrs. [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express [illegible] pounds of gold dust. The [illegible] passengers by the same boat, [illegible] are direct from the mines. The Call [illegible] would not be ready to admit [illegible] statement than that they were all [illegible] such was not the case, and the amount by private hands, if actually known, would show nearly an equal footing with the Express treasure, unless there is a "great exaggeration" in the heft and shape of cantenas.

INSURANCE COMPANIES.—If we cannot have Insurance Companies at home, based upon our own capital, it is a relief to know that we have Agencies established in our midst of the most reliable companies in existence. Under the laws of California, heavy deposits are required of such companies before their policies can stand good. Six companies have complied, proving their solvency, as follows: The Home, the Hartford, the Security and Arctic, the Washington, Niagara, and the Phœnix, all of which Messrs. Richards & McCraken are agents for in this city.

THE FUNERAL OF J. P. DENISON.—The members of the Fire Department will be in attendance at the funeral of the late Mr. J. P. Denison this afternoon, to pay their last respects to deceased, who was a member of Columbian Engine Company, No. 3. The members of the different Brass Bands of the city will also meet together, and attend in a body, to play for their late fellow-musician. This is an old custom among musicians, and some of the finest pieces ever played have been executed at funeral services similar to this.

SHIP ARCHITECTURE.—It is very often the case that bright ideas, obtained from the dusty and rusty corners of seclusion, are made to do an amount of service for the benefit of the world at large. So it may be considered in reference to ship building, the nicest and most difficult operation of which seems to consist in first forming a draught or model of the vessel proposed. The cultivated nations of antiquity appear to have possessed ships of a buoyant character, and ship architecture must have been observed by mankind, beginning with rude skiffs and canoes. Very little has been said on the subject, however, and the construction and character of vessels has been ever governed more by the object to be attained, than from any consideration of history upon the subject. Of clipper-ships the great object has always been speed, ease of movements, and capacity for carrying guns, stores, provisions, and accommodation of the crew. The model that the American clippers are at present constructed from, was conceived on the Willamette river, by a sight and inspection of the Chinook canoe, such as are almost daily to be seen in the river now, swiftly propelled by the light paddle of the Indian. The parties were interested in Government affairs, and the adoption of the model was procured, and has since proved effective. There is a tradition relating to the subject of the construction of the Chinook canoe, which enables the Indian to live the reminder of his days without labor, after he has successfully built one fit for the service of his tribe. Small models of this craft are sold by Indians on the streets of our city frequently, for mere nothing, which, if their history could be known, would make them very interesting relics.

"FIAT JUSTITIA."—Under the head of dostly gifts from California, the San Francisco Bulletin says: "King Victor Emmanuel, who, as is well known, is a great friend of the chase, has just received twenty stags from California. They have cost, voyage and all, little less than $250 a piece." Most of our readers will remember the frequent reference in these columns last fall, to the progress of Count Castelani in collecting these valuable animals from the forests and mountains of Oregon, and very many who visited the city of Portland, about that time, will remember the large portable stalls near the landing, made for their over shipment on the California steamship. We hope the California papers will do our State credit once in a while, when referring to the arrival East, or elsewhere, of products of the North Pacific Coast. The Elk referred to were from Oregon.

SOLEMN OCCASION.—Of the many solemn occasions we have witnessed, none were more impressive than one which occurred in this city yesterday. Two hearses moved through the streets at about the same moment, with the bodies of the two murdered men, Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Denison. The former was taken from the Dennison House to the Catholic Church, and afterwards to the East Portland Cemetery for interment. Mr. Denison's remains were taken from the Pioneer Hotel, to the residence of his father-in-law, on Seventh street, between Pine and C streets, where the funeral procession will be formed to-day. Both of these gentlemen have left families to mourn their loss. Their murderers will be examined to-day at the Cascades, the scene of the tragic occurrence.

TREASURE EXPRESS.—We are in receipt of Walla Walla, Idaho City (Boise), and Lewiston papers, by last night's boat. Mr. West, the Messenger of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, had in charge 280 pounds of gold dust. There were sixty-five passengers by the same vessel, most of whom are direct from the mines. The California papers would not be ready to admit any other statement than that they were all flat broke, yet such was not the case, for the amount by private hands, if actually known, would show nearly an equal footing with the Express treasure, unless there is a "free exaggeration" in the heft and shape of canteens.

INSURANCE COMPANIES.—If we cannot have Insurance Companies at home, based upon our own capital, it is a relief to know that we have Agencies established in our midst of the most reliable companies in existence. Under the laws of California heavy deposits are required of such companies before their policies can stand good. Six companies have complied, proving their solvency, as follows: The Home, the Hartford, the Security and Arctic, the Washington, Niagara, and the Phœnix, all of which Messrs. Richards & McCraken are agents for in this city.

THE FUNERAL OF J. P. DENISON. — The members of the Fire Department will be in attendance at the funeral of the late Mr. J. P. Denison this afternoon, to pay their last respects to deceased, who was a member of Columbian Engine Company, No. 3. The members of the different Brass Bands of the city will also meet together, and attend in a body, to play for their late fellow-musician. This is an old custom among musicians, and some of the finest pieces ever played have been executed at funeral services similar to this.

THE CASCADES TRAGEDY.—Passengers by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, from the Cascades yesterday, inform us that much feeling was manifested concerning the late tragedy at that place, and fears were entertained that the prisoners might escape, through the aid of sympathizers. Edward Bush was returned from Vancouver, on the boat yesterday morning. The widow of Mr. Denison, with her children, arrived in this city last evening.

FRUIT.—The amount of cherries and currants in market, has so rapidly increased that the prices have materially diminished, and they are offered at a very moderate sum when compared to former rates. We observed a card over a basket of cherries in one of the fruit stands yesterday which read: "ten pounds for $1." We immediately invested in a bit's worth.

THE GEORGE S. WRIGHT.—The propeller George S. Wright, arrived off the mouth of Victoria harbor on the morning of June 1st, from Portland. The cargo is reported by the Victoria papers as being "all right," but the return to this port by the Wright was questionable.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Messrs. Mitchell, Shelby, Mosher, and other citizens of this city, for favors in the shape of telegrams of the election returns.

THE bark Samuel Merritt, Capt. Williams, is now due from San Francisco, and may be expected up in tow of the steamer John H. Couch, to-morrow night.

THE RETURNS.—Sandy Precinct not having been heard from yet, it is impossible to give the vote of Multnomah complete. It is hoped that the returns from Sandy will arrive to-day. The indications are, from all the figures accessible, that the Union majority throughout the State will reach 3,000—the largest Union expression ever given in Oregon. Progressive civilization is on the track of the "Star of Empire."

Denison. A full attendance is requested.

In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.
Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.
Sole Agents for the Pacific Coast,
REDINGTON & CO.,
jel4dlm 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26dlm Diseases of Old Age.—As man approaches his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen the outwardly failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

SORE THROAT, COUGH, COLD, and similar troubles, if suffered to progress, result in serious Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections, oftentimes incurable.
BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are compounded so as to reach directly the seat of the disease and give almost instant relief.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands in the ocean—from every rank and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

RACINE, WIS., Sept. 26, 1863.
"I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.
C. A. PLAUTS."

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.
"One young man, who had been sick and not cured the doctor for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $100 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL."

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

MACHEMEH MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.
"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. D. M. DEVOE."

"I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"Then will send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHOUN, Rochester, N. Y."

"Send me twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters; the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C."

"I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O."

"The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc."

The Destruction of the Copperheads.

The Democrats came like the Kilkenny cats,
And their top-knots were garnished with shocking bad hats,
And the hue of their hair was like rays from the sun,
When the red streaks inform us the day's work is done.

Like sticks in the fraces on St. Patrick's Day,
That lost was beheld in the morn of the fray;
Like heads bruised and bloody, when store knocked down,
By sunset that host was cleaned out through the town.

And there lay the Copperheads, tongue, fang and scale,
Their heads crushed in earth, but still wiggling the tail,
And the track of their writhing was plain in the dust,
As the mark of a brogan deep in a bog thrives.

And there sat a candidate with a bunged eye,
Allaying the pain with a bath of old rye,
And the sprig of shillelah so fresh in the morn,
Was now in a double case only a thorn.

For the spirit of Truth breathed through patriot souls,
And the voices of treason grew dumb at the polls,
And the Cop. heard his knell in our victory's chimes,
And gave up the ghost, having voted twelve times.

And long shall the hordes who disloyalty plot,
Beware the sound drubbing they recently got;
And their hopes of good news to send Jefferson D.
Have perished like pratties that rot in Tralee.

DOMESTIC LIFE IN THE SUNNY SOUTH.—Nearly every negro tells me stories like this: I said to the girl who now cooks and washes for me—"Anne, would you rather stay here with your own family and friends, or go North with me among strange people?"

"I would rather serve three white misses in the North than one Southern missus."

"Why so—are they hard on you here—are the ladies hard?"

"Believe it, dey is."

"Do they ever whip their own people themselves?"

"Indeed they do."

"What have you seen and known in your own family?"

"I tell you. Our house boy Webster broke one of the China dishes, and he knew the missus would be angry, so he did it away under the house; but when the ladies missed it, they told the people if they did not find out who did it they would all be punished; and two of the other men found out Webster and told on him, and George was frightened and run away."

"And what then?"

"They caught him and brought him back, and Mistress Bailey was sick, in bed, so she told her daughter, Miss Betty she must whip, and she had him stripped naked, and she put her foot on his head, and she made two colored men whip him."

"Did you see this yourself?"

"Yes—we all did—and she had a rope round his neck, and when he beg for mercy she pulled it tight, so she choke him and his tongue stick out."

"And did Miss Betty stand by and see all this?"

"She tell 'em, she make'em do it—she begin after breakfast, and keep it up till two o'clock."

"What became of Webster?"

"She whip him to death—he never got over it. He lay in a shed, and when Master Bailey hear you folks was coming he start to all off for Texas, and we got up to the pine woods at Coteli, and there we stayed awhile, and master came back and send up Webster's mother. He died there two weeks after he was whipped, and the Union cavalry men help bury him."

If Mistress Betty Pickett wishes to explain this little transaction, your columns will be open to her, I am sure, and I trust she will use them, and soon. I hope these stories are lies—are they?—Alexandria (La.) Correspondence of New York Evening Post.

SHOE-STRINGS.—In consequence of the hoop-skirt business going down so suddenly, large numbers of middle men, with moderate means were left high dry on the sand-bank of misfortune, with great quantities of braiding machines on their hand and nothing for them to do. This put them to their wits ends, and they were not long in discovering the new channel of usefulness opening before them, when those who were able to procure the necessary additional apparatus launched out into the business of braiding shoe-strings, and have since been prosecuting a profitable trade in that line. Paterson, determined not to be behind in this, as well as in every good work, can already boast of several establishments within its limits, and as far as the quality and finish of the article goes we will pit them against the best products of the country. When the machines now being prepared for the work get under way they will be able to send to market several thousand gross per week.

The manufacture or braiding of the strips is essentially the same as the process of wire covering for hoop skirts, the same machines being used with very little alteration. The tagging or tipping with brass of the ends of the string is the most difficult and tedious part of the work. The string is not, as is generally supposed, cut the proper length and then tagged, but is run through the machine whole, two tags being put on it once with the machine claimed by Fletcher, of Rhode Island; others only putting on one, cutting them at the same time.

After being cut they are tied up in bundles of a gross each and labeled with the quality and size, when they are ready for market. They run in different lengths, from eight inches to twenty-four and upwards. The materials used are silk, cotton, mohair, linen and jute, comprising the round, flat, square and glazed varieties. The average cost at wholesale by the gross is about ninety cents. In 1860 a cart load could be bought at five cents a dozen, or only half the present rates by the single pair, and were sold on the streets at three pairs for two cents; now they bring two cents a pair. Girls are mostly employed in their manufacture, averaging nearly twenty-five hands to every seventy-five machines.—Paterson (N. Y.) Press.

DURING the late battle of Shiloh an officer hurriedly rode up to an Aid and inquired for Grant. "That's him with the field-glass," said the Aid. Wheeling his horse about, the officer furiously rode up to the General, and touching his cap thus addressed him. "Sheneral, I vante to make von report: Schwartz' Battery is took," "Ha!" says the General, "how was that?" "Vell, you see, Sheneral, de t—d Shesheshnist come up in de front of us, and de t—d Shesheshnists come in de rear of us, and Schwartz' Battery vas took." "Well, sir," said the General, "you of course spiked the guns." "Vat" exclaimed the Dutchman in astonishment, "schpike dem guns—schpike dem new guns? No, it vould schpoil dem!" "Well," said the General, sharply, "what did you do?" "Do?" "Vy, we took dem back again, by—"

AN EPIGRAMMATIC EFFUSION.—At one of the London hotels, (where gas has not been introduced,) a gentleman, seeking in vain for a candle with which to light himself to his room, passed a young lady who had two candles, one of which she politely offered him. He thanked her, and the next morning acknowledged the courtesy in the following epigram. The young lady was as handsome as she was polite:—

"You gave me a candle. I gave you my thanks,
And add—as a compliment justly your due—
There isn't a girl in these famine ridden ranks
Who could, if she tried, hold a candle to you."

Plato being told that some enemies had spoken ill of him, said, "It matters not: I will endeavor so to live that no one shall believe them."

DESERT OF SAHARA.—In the Wilderness shall Waters break out. Perhaps no more hopeless enterprise could be undertaken than to attempt to reclaim the great African desert of Sahara, where no rain ever falls and there are but occasional cases to give relief to the weary and fainting caravans that traverse it. Modern science, however, laughs at seeming impossibilities. Skillful engineers in the French army in Algiers propose to sink Artesian wells at different points with the strong confidence that thus water could be reached and forced to the surface. In 1860, five Artesian wells have been opened, around which, as vegetation thrives luxuriantly, 30,000 palm trees and 1,000 fruit trees had been planted, and two thriving villages established. At the depth of a little over 500 feet an underground river or lake was struck, and from two of them live fish have been thrown up, showing that there was a large body of water underneath. The French government by this means hopes to make the route across the desert to Timbuctoo ferril and fit for travelers, and thus to bring the whole overland travel and commerce through Algeria, which will be one of the greatest feats of modern scientific enterprise.

HONESTY.—A Sandwich Island paper tells the following example of native honesty: A native Hawaiian, while coming into town over the Palama road, picked up a package containing between thirty and forty dollars in coin. Instead of quietly putting it into his pocket, he fastened it on a pole, and went through the streets of the city enquiring if any other had lost a parcel of money. A foreigner who met him asked him the reason why he did not appropriate it to his own use or whether any person saw him pick it up. He answered, no, no one saw him but God, and he knew it would be wrong to do so.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,
OR PROTECTED
Solution of Protoxide of Iron,
Has been used with Great Success in Curing
DYSPEPSIA,
Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury, GENERAL DEBILITY,
and all Diseases which require a Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of which peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The diets are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public:

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT,	THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER,	PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D.,	JAMES C. DUNN,

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by combination in a way entirely new and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.—A. A. HAYES, M. D., Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART, LIVER, KIDNEYS, DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM, and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1850, page 76.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body in the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every related nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females,

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. Purchase only of reliable dealers. Sold everywhere.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess or weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refreshed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER

The sad sprig, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man: he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or in an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will never give praise to
